SEASON FINALE:

Le Salon de Musiques, one of L.A.'s true cultural jewels, is famed for providing up-close and personal musical performances in the warm, intimate environs of the fifth floor of the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion.

This installment of the acclaimed chamber music series features works for strings and piano by three German greats -- Richard Strauss, Felix Mendelssohn and Philipp Scharwenka -- performed by violinist Jessica Guideri, cellist John Walz and pianist Robert Thies. Musicologist Dr. Kristi Brown-Montesano provides the introductions and context, and after the concert, you're invited to join the musicians for a Q&A and reception featuring champagne and a high-tea buffet catered by Patina.

PROGRAMM:

- R. STRAUSS: Sonata for Cello & Piano in F Major Op 6
- P. SCHARWENKA: Sonata for Violin & Piano n.1 in B minor Op 110
- F. MENDELSSOHN: Piano Trio n.1 in D minor Op 49

Künstler: Jessica GUIDERI, Violion, John WALZ, Cello, Robert THIES, Piano.

Sponsored by the Steinway & Sons, KMozart Classical Radio, Performing Arts Live, Euroflia, Cave to Cellar, the French, German, Austrian Consulates of Los Angeles.

Tickets: $85 - Student $45
(including French Champagne & High-Tea Buffet catered by Patina)
