French-American concert pianist François Chouchan is no stranger to awards and fame. From the Conservatoire National Supérieur de Musique de Paris (instructed by Yvonne Loriod-Messiaen and Germaine Mounier) to the Viotti International Piano Competition in Italy, his outstanding talent has been recognized all over Europe. Not only has Chouchan performed as a soloist with orchestras and Chamber Music groups in many countries, but he has also been invited to play during Master Classes by several superior Talents such as M. Rostropovitch, Nikita Magaloff, G. Sebok or Magda Tagliaferro, who all acknowledged his unique sensitivity and creativity.

In Los Angeles, where Chouchan has resided since 2007, he has performed at the LACMA Museum for the “Sundays Live Series”, at UCLA’s Schoenberg Hall, at Cal State Long Beach, Cal State Northridge (with the Music Guild). He has also appeared at the First Presbyterian Church in Santa Monica, at The Zipper Hall and at the Brandeis Institute, and for the Ermitage Foundation.

Chouchan’s deep musical sensibilities, his passion, perseverance and open mind are recognized by professionals and spectators alike who regard him as an inspiring, sensitive and creative musician. He offers a “hip” approach to the classic music and his easy-going attitude and fresh approach to the genre has earned him the affection of fans of all ages, helping develop a younger audience for the art of Chamber Music.

His Chamber Music Series, called "Le Salon de Musiques - Masters Rediscovered", takes place at the famous Dorothy Chandler Pavilion Fifth Floor. The Eighth Season begins on October 15, 2017 until June 3, 2018, featuring wonderful Composers as BEETHOVEN, SCHUBERT, SPOHR, SCHUMANN, CHOPIN, XAVER & PHILIPP SCHARWENKA, DVORAK, MENDELSSOHN, TCHAIKOVSKY, RACHMANINOFF, ARENSKY, BORODIN, GLAZUNOV, RIMSKY-KORSAKOV, NAPRAVNIK, PEJACEVIC, SHOSTAKOVITCH, SAINT-SAENS, FRANCK, CHAUSSON, GRIEG, SIBELIUS and BRIDGE. With several "US PREMIERES", the purpose of LE SALON DE MUSIQUES is also to re-introduce amazing works from the Romantic / Neo-Romantic and Impressionist Repertoire, written by wonderful Composers who remain almost forgotten today. "LE SALON DE MUSIQUES" is a unique musical experience - one like no other in Los Angeles. By removing the stage and putting the Artists next to the audience, each performance is a very personal and intimate experience. An informal Q & A with the Artists follow the performance, followed by a Gourmet Buffet catered by PATINA with French Champagne
