

Washington. - - - - Season of 1896-97.

Musical

Given by

Mr. Richard Burmeister,

Columbia Theatre,

Friday, May 21st, 1897, at 4.15 P. M.

Miss Edith Tyler,

Miss Blanche Sanders,

Miss Anne Atkinson,

Mr. Luther Conradi,

} Pupils of
Mr. Burmeister.

Assisted by

Miss Florence Woolford, Soprano.

Persian Song.

(From the Persian, by Omar Khayyam.)

Music by Richard Burmeister.

A book of verses underneath the bough,
A jug of wine, a loaf of bread—and thou
Beside me singing in the wilderness—
Oh, wilderness were paradise enow!
Then to the lip of this sweet, youthful mouth
I lean'd, the secret of my life to learn:
And lip to lip it murmur'd—"While you are living,
Love!—for, once dead, you never shall return."

---

---

Mr. R. Burmeister will open a studio in Washington during the season 1897-98, commencing October first, 1897, and will also appear as solo pianist in concerts and recitals.

Address: care of Messrs. E. F. Droop & Sons,

925 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.

.. Program. ..

- Beethoven. Concerto in C minor. First movement.
Accompaniment on second piano.
Miss Edith Tyler.
- Gounod. Aria "Cinq Mars."
Miss Florence Woolford.
- Chopin. Prelude in B minor.
- Liszt. Paganini Etude.
- Moszkowski. Valse brillante.
Miss Blanche Sanders.
- Weber. Concertstuck in F minor.
Accompaniment on second piano.
Miss Anne Atkinson.
- Minetti. "My Lady waits."
- Burmeister. Persian song.
Miss Florence Woolford.
- Liszt. Hungarian Fantasy.
Accompaniment on second piano.
Mr. Luther Conradi.

---

Steinway Pianos Used.

DROOP'S MUSIC STORE,

925 Penna. Ave.

The Autoharp

Easy to Learn

Easy to Play

Easy to Buy.

On the Mountain Lake.

Keeping time with voice and oar,
Echoes sounding from the shore,—
Ah, this fair coquette was sharp
When she bought an Autoharp.

The Autoharp

is the most interesting and instructive little instrument of the times! Its sweet harmonies are delightful; if you are going away this summer take an "Autoharp" with you; nothing will afford you more genuine pleasure.

We Will Teach You to Play it in Five Minutes.

E. F. DROOP & SONS,

925 Pennsylvania Ave.

Steinway and other high grade Pianos.

For Sale, Rent and Exchange.